

The Greatest Gift of All by Michael Levy

My sight is a gift I cherish it allows me to read the wisdom of the wise but should I lose my sight I will still be able to hear compositions of great masters and the voice of the wise
If I should lose my hearing I will still be able to tune into universal intelligence to understand the source of the wisdom of the wise When the day comes that I lose my heart that will be my greatest gift of all for then I will be back home in the arms of the Spirit
I have embraced all my life.

Source: <https://pickmeuppoetry.org/the-greatest-gift-of-all-by-m-levy/>